Schedular payments are payments made to people who are not employees but are contractors. This includes independent contractors, labour-only contractors and self-employed contractors. You're receiving schedular payments if you're not an employee and the type of work you're receiving a payment for is an activity listed on page 3.

If you aren't ordinarily required to have tax deducted from payments you receive you can choose to have tax deducted. This will be treated as schedular payments, if the person paying you agrees. You will need to get their agreement in writing.

Use the flow chart below to work out what tax rate to use

A If you have a tailored tax rate (TTR) enter this on page 1 and show your original TTR certificate to your payer.

A TTR is a tax rate worked out to suit your individual circumstances. You may want a TTR if the minimum tax rate that applies to you will result in you paying too much tax. For example, if you have business expenses that will lower the amount of tax you need to pay on your income. You can apply for a tailored tax rate in myIR or by completing a Tailored tax code application (IR23BS) form. Go to www.ird.govt.nz (search keyword: IR23BS).

If you're a non-resident contractor the application process is different. For more information go to www.ird.govt.nz (search keywords: NRCT special rate).

B If you don't want tax deducted from your schedular payments, you may be able to apply for a certificate of exemption (COE) in myIR or by completing the Request for PAYE exemption on schedular payments (IR332) form on our website.

If you're a resident contractor paid by a labour hire business under a labour hire arrangement you cannot use a COE for these payments. You may be able to apply for a 0% tailored tax rate instead. You can complete an IR23BS in myIR.

For more information about COEs go to www.ird.govt.nz (search keywords: schedular coe).
