

Cascade gecko

Mokopirirakau "Cascades"

Otago Regional Council

Conservation status

Regional | Threatened: Endangered
National | At Risk: Declining

Main threats

Habitat change
Introduced predators (e.g. mice, possums, stoats and hedgehogs)

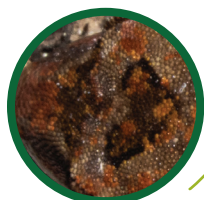

Identify me by my...

Orange mouth

Broad stripes along back

V-shaped marking often present between eyes

Body length: Up to 95 mm

I look similar to...*

Orange-spotted gecko

Tākitimu gecko

*These species can look so alike they are very difficult to tell apart without genetic data.

I inhabit...

Mainly rocky areas (e.g. cliffs, scree slopes and creviced walls).

I eat...

Presumably insects and probably sugar sources such as nectar or fruits

1,800 m

0 m

