

Notice of Surrender of a Resource Consent

Under section 138(1) of the Resource Management Act 1991 a consent holder may surrender a consent, either in whole or part by giving written notice to the Consent Authority.

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING BEFORE COMPLETING THIS FORM

A Consent Authority may refuse to accept the surrender of part of a resource consent where it considers that surrender of that part would –

- (a) Affect the integrity of the consent; or
- (b) Affect the ability of the consent holder to meet other conditions of the consent; or
- (c) Lead to an adverse effect on the environment

A person who surrenders a resource consent remains liable –

- (a) For any breach of conditions of the consent which occurred before the surrender of the consent; and
- (b) To complete any work to give effect to the consent unless the consent authority directs otherwise in its Notice of Surrender.
